

73 batch of NITK gifts tennis court to institute

Mangaluru: To mark their golden graduation, the National Institute of Technology Karnataka, Surathkal batch of 1973 constructed and donated Prof AS Adke Tennis Academy Court 1 to their alma mater.

The tennis court, that was inaugurated recently, was constructed as per International Tennis Federation (ITF) standards using synthetic materials. The inaugural event was presided over by B Ravi, director, NITK, Surathkal. Faculty Udaykumar Yaragatti, who is also an 1973 alumnus, was the chief guest.

The generous contribution from the NITK batch of 1973 not only enriches our sports facilities but also serves as an inspiration for our students. This state-of-the-art tennis court will not only foster the sporting talents of our students but also instill in them the values of perseverance, teamwork, and dedication, said director Ravi. TNN
