

Kaushik S Nandan of NITK, Surathkal being awarded the second prize by TCS Regional Head, TCS Bengaluru, Sunil Deshpande, during the state-level quiz competition held in Bengaluru recently.

NITK bags second prize in quiz

MANGALURU, DHNS: Kaushik S Nandan of NITK Surathkal bagged second prize at the state-level quiz competition conducted by the Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) and Board for IT Education Standards (BITES).

Dheeraj Angadi of KLS M S Sheshagiri College of Engineering and Technology, Belagavi won the first prize. Winner and runner-up education scholarships of Rs 85,000 and Rs 50,000 was presented to Dheeraj and Kaushik. All finalists also received education scholarships from TCS.

Regional Head, TCS Bengaluru, Sunil Deshpande, Prof Suresh Sundaram of Aerospace Engineering, IISC, BITES Co-chairman Dr Selvan D and SJBIT Principal Dr K V Mahendra Prashanth, among others, were also present. Students from over 115 engineering colleges across Karnataka took part in the quiz programme this year, a press release stated.